

R&D Outsourcing

---

Types of design that can integrate with industrial design

Table 1. Types of design that can integrate with industrial design

Design view	Definition
Interior design	A variety of design aimed at the interior of the premises in order to provide a comfortable and aesthetically pleasing interaction of the environment with people.
Landscape Design	A variety of design located at the junction of three areas: on the one hand, architecture ,construction and design ( engineering aspect), on the other hand, botanists and crop production ( biological aspect) and, on the third hand, in landscape design, information from stories ( especially from cultural history )
Urban Design	Considered as a design-artistic synthesis of design with architecture, urban planning and plastic and visual arts.
Graphic design	Artistically - project activities aimed at creating a visual graphic program or system. Graphic design supports the development of socio-economic and cultural with fer life, contributing to the formation of meaningful visual landscape . Graphic design includes the development of fonts, advertising materials, trademarks, packaging and packaging, corporate styles of companies, etc.
Web design	Graphic view design , aimed at the development and design of objects of the information environment Internet , designed to provide them with high consumer properties and aesthetic to quality. At the moment, interface design is becoming especially popular.

Source: specialized print and online publications.

Link to article:: Types of design that can integrate with industrial design